

NATALIE WEST | SVP, GENERAL COUNSEL

Life at AtlasEdge:

As SVP, General Counsel, Natalie West is responsible for providing strategic legal advice on all matters of the AtlasEdge business, including Sales, Operations, Technology, Real Estate and M&A.

Life before AtlasEdge:

Originally serving as Deputy General Counsel, Natalie joined the AtlasEdge team in 2022. Prior to that, she has held multiple senior legal positions in-house, including Vice President, Commercial Legal at Liberty Global, providing commercial and technology focused legal advice on a wide range of M&A transactional activity. Before Liberty Global, Natalie had a career training and practicing as a finance lawyer at an international firm and later working at several international financial institutions on project finance and technology roles in both Canada and the Netherlands.

Life outside AtlasEdge:

Natalie loves travelling with her family to off-the-beaten track locations, and enjoys anything involving live music. In her next life, she plans to be a platinum-selling mega pop star. In this life, she settles for karaoke. enjoys anything involving live music. In her next life, she plans to be a platinum-selling mega pop star. In this life, she settles for karaoke.

CONDENSED VERSION

Natalie West | SVP, General Counsel

As SVP, General Counsel, Natalie West is responsible for providing strategic legal advice on all matters of the AtlasEdge business, including Sales, Operations, Technology, Real Estate and M&A.

Originally serving as Deputy General Counsel, Natalie joined the AtlasEdge team in 2022. Prior to that, she has held multiple senior legal positions in-house, including Vice President, Commercial Legal at Liberty Global, providing commercial and technology focused legal advice on a wide range of M&A transactional activity. Before Liberty Global, Natalie had a career training and practicing as a finance lawyer at an international firm and later working at several international financial institutions on project finance and technology roles in both Canada and the Netherlands.