

Robbie Mcghie | Chief Delivery Officer

Life at AtlasEdge

As Chief Delivery Officer, Robbie is responsible for all aspects of design, build and operating of AtlasEdge's data centres. This includes overseeing the end-to-end delivery of capacity to meet growing customer demand for the highest quality of product and service.

Life before AtlasEdge

With 25 years of experience in the data centre industry, Robbie has held senior roles in designing, building, and operating data centres for leading companies including Interxion, CE Colo, VIRTUS, and most recently Vantage. At Vantage, Robbie focused on the delivery of high-end Data Centre projects in new and growth markets within the EMEA region.

Life outside AtlasEdge

Since leaving Scotland in 1999, Robbie has lived in the Netherlands, England, and the Czech Republic before moving back to England in 2013. He enjoys spending time with his partner and their four children, loves fly fishing, and is an avid follower of football and rugby.
